Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—Why were they detained in several colleges ?

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—They failed ; therefore they were detained.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—In how many subjects these students failed ?

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—Those students who were promoted under this ordinance had failed in only two subjects. So, they have been given this privilege of getting promotion.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—How many ordinances were issued ?

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—There was only one ordinance this time.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Was this question not discussed yesterday or the day before ?

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—It was not discussed in the way in which it is put now. (Laughter). Here I have asked for information about the number of students. I want to elicit further information; the failures were not in one or two subjects but in many subjects, and the standard has been going down day by day.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The Hon'ble Member is making a statement.

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—What is the information you want ?

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—What are the colleges in which the largest number of failures took place ?

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—I have furnished the information. It is available in the answer given.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—I am asking the information collegewar.

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—I have furnished information for 24 institutions. (Laughter).

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—What is the number of students that were studying in those colleges ?

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—I am sorry; that information is not readily available. If the Hon'ble Member wants it, I shall get him the information.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—The percentage of failures in each college, can you give ?

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—That will have to be calculated from the statements we get from the colleges.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—Did the Government receive applications for promotion from several students before the ordinances were issued ?

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—We had received some applications but we did not take any action on those applications.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—Did the Government send all these applications for disposal or for immediate consideration or for further consideration by the University Council ?

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—All these were not ordered on the applications. In the usual course they were sent to the concerned authorities.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—Did not this forwardal of these applications encourage the University authorities to give promotions because they were forwarded from the Government for disposal by the University ?

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—That is the usual procedure. Any application would be forwarded to the concerned authorities for needful action or disposal, whatever it is.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—Does this kind of ordinance bring credit to any Government or institution ?

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—It is a matter of opinion.

Sri V. M. MASCARENHAS (Retroceded Area—General).—Were the Government not consulted in the matter ? Are the University authorities right in doing it ?

The Hon'ble Sri R. CHENNIGA-RAMIAH.—It is a matter of opinion.
